Reference Tables for Outlier and Benchmarking

Outliers:

Tab 5 'Outlier Trend' uses the colours below to display areas of +ve and -ve practice. Explanation of the outliers and calculations behind them are provided below.

Above outlier	+ve - report group mean is in top 25% and confidence is high	Report group mean is higher than the benchmark group interquartile range 3 (Q3) and the report group lower confidence level is higher than the benchmark group upper confidence level.
Within quartile 3, but not an above outlier	?+ve - report group mean is in top 25% but confidence is variable	Report group mean is higher than the benchmark group interquartile range 3 (Q3) and the report group lower confidence level is lower than the benchmark group upper confidence level.
Within the inter-quartile range	- report group mean is in interquartile range.	Report group mean is higher than the benchmark interquartile range 1 (Q1) and lower than the benchmark group interquartile range 3 (Q3).
Within quartile 1, but not a below outlier	?-ve - report group mean is in bottom 25% nationally and confidence is variable	Report group mean is lower than the benchmark group interquartile range 1 (Q1) and the report group upper confidence level is higher than the benchmark group lower confidence level.
Below outlier	-ve - report group mean is in bottom 25% nationally and confidence is high	Report group mean is lower than the benchmark group interquartile range 1 (Q1) and the report group upper confidence level is lower than the benchmark group lower confidence level.
